The Tray 12 is a handy and very stable paint tray suitable for all types of paint and lacquer rollers up to and including 12 cm (4.5 inches) wide. For any small painting job with brush and roller. The Tray 12 stands very stable thanks to the second compartment in which you can put brush, brush or roller or a sponge or cloth. Its strong and compact shape makes the Tray very easy to hold. This makes it excellent for jobs that require concentration, think of painting window frames and furniture, restoration projects or applying areas of color to walls. The angled rolling surface ensures perfect distribution of paint on the roller, and excess paint automatically sinks back into the reservoir. Once you've used this one, you'll never want another. Thanks to the liners, you won't have to, because it lasts an incredibly long time!
